

ARRIVING

To maintain a quiet, private environment, visits are by appointment only and our entrance remains locked between appointments and is only opened just prior to your arrival. We ask that you refrain from arriving too early to avoid intruding on the solitude of others receiving treatment and to avoid being kept waiting on the street.